Huntressa's victory in the fifth race at the Fair Grounds yesterday was about as pretty a reversal of form us one would care to see. It was, in fact, a plain, pro-meditated, foreseen and to be expected somersault. It could be seen combig as far back as May 10, when the good filly began running dull, speedless and gaitless races under stable boys. It was cinched on May 14, when she went out against the lot she was in against yesterday and finished last in 1:46. Yesterday she gave the same horses more weight and won in 1:44% at the same distance. It became a dyed-in-the-wood cinch that this flop was to come off when on May 19 she was beaten by Buccleuth. Marie Belle, Helen Print and others over six furlongs, all these giving her weight. On May 5 Huntressa beat King Daly, who previously ran A. D. Gebson's eyes out at Nashville. She was good and it as far previously ran A. D. Gabson's eyes out at Nashville. She was good and fit as far back as the Arkansas Derby away in March. Her bad races cannot be excussed on the score of unitness. On May 19 she was a 2-to-1 shot and finished newhere. She did not get off, did not show any speci. On May 14 she ran her bad race at a mile and twenty yards and went up in the betting from 6 to 16 to 1. On May 18 in her bad race at a six furious she went up from 6 to 12 to 1.

Now, it may be that the mare was under very handsome ride from Germley, who was not staggering all over her as he was an Eva Moe, Gormley can never give a lax exhibition here again. His effort yesterday was very handsome. Torreon ran a grand race under a huge impost for a small horse.

Old Nickle D., a sire of promising sons. Old Nickie D., a sire of promising sons.

Old Nickle D. a sire of promising sens, showed some of his old speed in the fourth race, a five furious sprint, and won in time that cut the track record, made by Algolfor the distance, haif a second. Orle ran a bad race here and Okla a good one. Doctor Clark beat a huge field of dogs in the last event. Alle Alee was the favorite, and, though Dominiak did his best on him, he could not get him to run, and he stopped to nothing in the last sixteenth.

AS A BETTING PROPOSITION.

Bucclenth, Wallabout and J. Sidney Walker Look Like Winners,

In the first race to-day go to Buccleuth all three ways. Hilee may win, but Lewis tired, and when Four Leaf Clover and Buccleuth challenge, it should be Hilee to his kennel. Buccleuth lost fifteen lengths in his race against Frank Bell and Kindred, yet won in 1:14, going away and at his most yet won in I.14, going away and at his most generous case.

Pass the next one. No one but a candidate for the bir institution on the Tower Grove Hill would bet on a fourteen-horse race with crazy 2-year-olds in it. If the insane filly, Grand Shot, could get off she would win, but she is a bad actor and it is a big field.

Unless the guileless Mr. Hughes has something up his Ah Sin sleeve in Tempse, wallabout ought to do a slack-wire act on the bit in the mile and one-half event. Round Turn will run a more or less good race and Miss Theresa will finish strong. But did not Wallabout beat Ali Saints at a

Now, it may be that the mare was under Lowe and Houbre in these races and that she was under Houbre in these races and that she was under Houbre yesterday and won as she pleased. But she did not go up in the betting. On the contrary, she was backed down from 10s to 5s.

Her bad races may be all right. But how is it that the bettors knew beforehand that she was going to run them? When her good race is to be run, they seem to know that she is going to run it. For the checks got down good and plenty.

The filly aiways has been fast, game, stout and most reliable. She always has done what has been asked of her. Her had races were too plainly careless to be excused on the ground of bad riding, hald luck or anything else. Then, she was not been on her bad races, and the was bet on when she was to run her good offers. However was good enough to bet on when she was to run her good offers. ure who was wise. Not that being wise to this is much credit, for a blind man could have felt it with his stick. The steeplechase yesterday was very pretty. The fencing of Genneruse was expecially attractive, in that it was hig and last, rather than accurate and perfect. Gormley rode her spiendidly. That boy had better not put up any more Eva Meerides, after showing himself so favorably as he did yesterday.

Wil McDaniels said that Fore and Aft should have beaten his field yesterday on his works, but added that he thought he suffed. He ran in blinkers—an unusual thing for a 2-year-old.

Torreon, a gamey, racy-looking little horse, took up the huge impost of 100 pounds yesterday and ran a great race. He will be hard to beat with even weights up to 145 pounds hereabouts.

Mr. Bratton flattered himself that he had a perfect cura for bleeders, and that he had cured Kid McCoy. The Bolero horse, however, bled copiously during the steeple-chase yesterday and had to be pulled up. Huntressa beat Peaceful as a 2-year-old same way weighted as they were yester-day. New York, May 23.—There is every indication to-night that the field which will go to the post in the Brooklyn Handicap at the opening of the spring meeting at Gravessrd to-morrow will include about lifteen of the best thoroughbreds in the country, though if rain should fall during the night the number of entries doubtless will be considerably reduced.

Assuming that the rain holds off and that the track is dry and fast, the race will probably furnish the greatest betting event of any Brooklyn Handicap in years, with Advance Guard, Itlaes and Monograph holding the first public favor. Washington, May 23—The St. Loui

Browns continued their good playing to-day grainst the Senators, and by a fine rally at the bat in the ninth inning won out by the score of 7 to 5. Many of the Washington enthusiasts ascribe the defeat of the Senators to a frown from the Goddess of Luck. but it is a peculiarity of this much-abused lady that she generally reserves her smiles for those who put forth their best endeavors to please her.

Fitcher Harper had been unusually successful in batting against Patten, and in the minth haming secured his third safe bingle, the ball rolling along the third-base line. This started all the trouble for the Senators, as Patten gathered in the ball and sent it a mile over the first baseman's head, but one of the spectages or the ball returned. ne of the spectators got the ball, returned t to the infield and Harper was held on second.

The Browns kicked over the play, but Uniper Sheridan insisted there was no rule to ower it. The bad throw insettled Patten and Burkett sent a wisked grounder to Carey, who gathered it in beautifully and nailed Harper by a good throw to Wolver-ton. Heidrick followed with a safe drivative second, his fourth of the day, but Motornick went out, third to first.

Big John Anderson then waiked to the bat and lined out a single to left, which sent Burkett and Heidrick over the plate. Little "Rhody" Wallace followed with a trinle to center, but was put out at the home plate trying so stretch it into a home run, Anderson scoring on the hit. un, Anderson scoring on the hit.

This batting rally put the Browns twe uns to the good, and, although Clarke nade a double in the Senators' last turn at the bat, it came after two were out, and

Patten by fanning out.

Rain Interferes With Game.

When the game started the sky was overcast with clouds, and by the second inning a drizzle had set in. This wet weather did not suit Jack Harper a little bit, and the Senators commenced to bombard his curves for keeps. Coughlin started off with a triple to deep centen and scored on Carey's double to right. Ely made the first out with a roller to Anderson. Clarke followed with a single into right, scoring Carey. As Patten came to the bat the rain came down so hard that the game had to be called. After a delay of half an hour sawdust was sprinkled around the base lines, and the contest was resumed in about two inches of mud. Patten got first as McCormick failed to get his grounder, and Ryan hit safe to left, scoring Clarke. Wolverton then broke up the combination by going out, second to first, but Delehanty's single sent Patten and Ryan over the plate. Kelster closed the inning by striking out. This ended the Senators' run-getting for the day, as Harper settled down and pitched gift-edged ball for the remaining seven innings.

plitched glit-edged bail for the remaining seven immings.

Burkett Starts Off Well.

In the first inning St. Louis got a good start, scoring two runs. Burkett started off by hitting a triple to the center field fence, and scored on Heidrick's drive for one base into right. McCermick then went out. Wolverton to Carey, and Anderson followed with a safe hit over second, Heidrick going to third. Wallace got his base on bails, but Padden flied out to Keister. Heidrick scoring. Wallace tried for second on the threw-in, but was caught by a good throw of Clarke to Ely, the latter running "Rhody" down on the line.

Two more runs were hung up by the Browns in the fourth inning, and the Senators knew they kad a hattle on, as the St. Louis boys refused to quit. After two were out. Sugden. Harper, Burkett and Heidrick hammered out singles, the latter's drive scoring the two first named. The game then floated along for the next four innings with mothing doing on either side, when up kobbed the Browns great hatting rally in the minth, and the Senators had to gailp down another defeat.

Both clubs fielded splendidly, when the mudby field is considered, and neither twirler had reason to complain of the support. At the bat Heidrick was the star, with four singles, but Harper was close up with a double and two singles, while Anderson, with his three singles, was a veritable "glant killer," his last drive putting the Browns on Easy street.
